Dear Pastor and prayer partners,

Fruhling (Spring) is arriving here in Germany and it is a welcomed sight. Our winters are long with much cloudiness, rain, snow, and the daylight very short but we are starting to enjoy more nice, sunny days. Just like we grow as Christians and bear fruit, it is exciting to see the blossoms and newness of life springing up around here. We are thankful for all God is doing here in beautiful Germany.

As seasons come and go, so do people we have grown to love as they move on to their next duty station. We love and connect with people no matter how long they are here for, but the ones who have stuck around for a couple of years, the "see ya later"s become harder and pull at our heartstrings. Once again, we said "see ya later" last month to a dear family and we will be saying another one come the end of May. This is the bittersweetness of military missions.

We were excited to be able to have a Easter SonRise service this year with people in actual attendance. The last two years Patrick would do an online devotion for the sunrise service due to covid restrictions. It was so nice to come together in person to see the sun rise and worship a risen Savior with our church family. We even had 6 visitors spread over 3 families for the morning service. We continue to have people interested and inquiring about our church with new visitors almost every week. The international side of the church continues to grow as fast as the military side.

Currently, almost all COVID restrictions have vanished for the time being so we are planning as much outreach and other activities as we can. We have VBS planned for the end of July and hope to be able to start back up regular Sunday School in the next few weeks. We've even been able to bring back our afternoon fellowship each Sunday.

Michael is becoming bold about inviting others to church almost as soon as he meets them. He recently invited his Soccer Coach (during their first practice) only to discover she had been asking about the church on Facebook earlier that week. His boldness for the Lord is very convicting and I hope he always looks for ways to share Jesus. Alana is doing well in Indiana, but because of her work schedule has a hard time attending church. She shared the other day she misses being in church and even tried to switch her days off. Please pray for her and her work schedule.

Thank you to those who faithfully prayerfully or financially support us. We count it a privilege to be your representative for Christ in Germany.

Thank you and God Bless

The Wolfes
