January - 2023

God is good all the time, and we're excited to see what He has in store for this year! The Lord has given us a running start for another year of service at the capitol. To the right are some of our new KY state legislators (and me) during their swearing-in ceremony. We do have some solid Christians in politics, and I hope you will put them on your daily prayers lists, as we are commanded to do in II Timothy 2:1-2.

Of course, we also have some dirty skunks in politics, I have them on a different kind of prayer list. One list has the heading BLESS, the other SMITE. (See Psalms 109:8) 🙄

As always, during the legislative session, I'll be watching for any proposed new laws that might impact religious liberty and will put those on my Facebook page and YouTube channel, "Patriot Point." I hope you'll watch each week because sometimes issues come up that require immediate action. I post a new episode each Friday. Also, a BIG thank you to all who sent Christmas cards this year. They were such a blessing and encouragement.

On the homefront, in the past few newsletters I've mentioned how Chrissy is having some heart problems. She had a stress-test - for some screwy reason she thinks I may be adding to her stress, but I figure that can't be it. She also had an echocardiogram, which showed she didn't have any blockages - great news. We are awaiting the results of the stress test (please, don't show it's me because I'll never hear the end of it) and we'll decide what to do next based on what we find out. PLEASE keep this in prayer.

Here's during a recent tour where we had a prayer meeting right in the middle of the capitol. Take that, ACLU!

One of the things I love about this ministry is having Christian groups come to our beautiful capitol and giving a tour. During tours, I set up a time for the group to meet with their senator and representative. This is a great way to build relationships with those in office and increases the influence Christians have in KY government. I hope you'll take advantage of this opportunity. Just contact me to have a tour; they're free, though if you bring Twinkies you might get a slightly better tour. 😊

This is the time where a lot of churches set out their yearly calendar of events. If your church would like to set up a meeting with me for a special patriotic event, revival or regular service, then talk to your pastor and have him contact me so we can make the arrangements.

In 2022, the Lord allowed me to preach at 71 church meetings not counting the Bible studies at the Capitol. Praise the Lord for that!

I hope it's even more this year.
