Evangelism - Missionaries to America - Chaplain to KY Capitol

October - 2024

Glory to God and shame on the devil, oh, and also on Biden, but that's another matter entirely. With the dear Lord keeping us busy, this year has flown by for us. It seems just yesterday I was complaining about Spring allergies, and now it's already time to start murmuring about Fall allergies.

Up at the capitol, the legislature continues to hold committee meetings on various issues and I'm keeping my eye out for moral issues and anything that might affect religious liberty. As always, the Lord's been gracious to present opportunities to counsel with several of our law makers on a host of topics. If you'd like to stay up-to-date on what's going on, please visit my YouTube channel, "Patriot Point."

In addition to the election of a new president (a matter I hope you are devoting serious prayer to), there will be two proposed amendments to the Kentucky Constitution. These may be on the back side of your ballot. Amendment 1 says you have to be a citizen in order to vote in our elections.

Though this might seem obvious, some liberal-run cities across the country have been allowing non-citizens to vote. To keep this from happening in Louisville... oops, I mean in Kentucky, we need to get this added to our constitution. Amendment 2 would allow the legislature to use state money to fund other than public schools. I am VERY in favor of this amendment. If you'd like to know more about it, watch the Patriot Point episode called "Beshear Refuses to See Emergency." Speaking of elections, if you need to register to vote, or have moved and need to re-register, you have until October 7th. Some people are extra hard on politicians. If you have a problem with one, then my advice it to just walk a mile in their shoes. By then it won't matter, because you're a mile away, and you have their shoes.

ON THE HOMEFRONT

Our son, Joshua, celebrates his 24th birthday this month. Currently, he's at Bob Jones University finishing up his music composition degree. He's seeking the Lord's will for his next steps, so prayer would be greatly appreciated.

It also would be appreciated if you would pray that he wins the lottery so he can afford that, which would be a double miracle seeing as how he doesn't play the lottery. A new car would be nice too. I'd like a Corvette please... I mean he'd like a sensible car that gets good mileage. (I've got to stop letting Chrissy read these letters before I send them out.) 😊
